DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS LIKE THESE?

- Is my own spirituality enough, or do I need something more?
- What if I am divorced? Or married/remarried outside of the Catholic Church? Can I come back?
- What am I missing by not actively practicing my Catholic faith?
- How can I make the greatest possible difference with the rest of my life?
- I have been away from the Church for a long time. Is it too late to return?
- A lot has changed in the Church. Can I really get caught up?
- What if I disagree with some of the Church's teachings?
- I feel guilty about my past. How can returning to the Church help me?
- I left the Church because I was hurt. Why should I return now? And, what can I expect if I return?

I hadn't been to church since my wedding 20 years ago, but when my husband left me, I decided it might be time to return. The people in the parish have been so supportive to me that I know I have come to the right place. —Cheryl, age 43

A friend of mine invited me to help build a home for a poor family. His parish sponsored this effort. I was so impressed by these people that I returned to the Church and joined the parish. —Michael, age 28
